D92

D92 K.S. PARK KOREAN APPLICANT

1929. H.S. PARK FOR EMPLOYMENT WITH

11 3. 29 S.M.P.

D-92

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE
C. I. D. REGISTRY
No. I. O. D. 92
File No. 11. 3. 29

(C.I.D.) Office Notes

Foreign Section, C.I.D.

March II, 1929.

Inquiries made regarding K. S. Park, applicant for a situation in the Police Force, show that he is not the same person as Herbert S. Park who was convicted at the Mixed Court in 1926 for larceny from Messrs Boyes, Basset & Co. Nanking Road. K. S. Park has not registered at the local Japanese Consulate since he came to Shanghai 3 years ago and it therefore liable to prosecution by the Japanese authorities although the latter do not seem inclined to take any action against him.

Park owns a small factory known as the "Star Prest, Trouser Presser", at the No. 731 Avenue Foch, French Town. Prior to the establishment of the latter factory early in 1928, Park was employed as a commercial agent dealing in Korean and Japanese goods. He is not known to have any political leanings, nor is there anything known against his general character.

H. S. Kim

A/ D. C. I.

Applicant has no special qualifications in spite of the high salary he asks.

H. Robertson
D.I. 11/3/29

11/3/29

11/3.

THE Star Prest

Trouser Presser

夾褲「他是」

可令褲子不直無皺

照此簡便新法夾褲

PRICE $3.50
(PORT $4.00)
定價[illegible]三元五角
外埠[illegible]元

Pants Pressed

Quickly and easily this new way

K. S. PARK & COMPANY
20 MUSEUM ROAD,
SHANGHAI, CHINA.

司公元潘
[illegible]十二號博物院路上海

~~Item based on 1929 ftl. document~~

27:2:29

Foreign Section,

For inquiry and report please. What is the connection, if any, between the applicant and the ex convict? What is the applicant's ~~[illegible]~~ reputation from a moral view point and a political view point? I think I have heard that he is not registered formally by the Japanese Consular authorities?

[illegible]

朝鮮元公司
總公路號物博第上
CABLE ADDRESS
PARKANDCO-SHANGHAI
K. S. PARK & COMPANY
20 MUSEUM ROAD
SHANGHAI, CHINA.
CODES
A.B.C. 5TH ED. BENTLEY'S
PRIVATE

February 27th, 1929.

R. B. Siers, Esq.
Present.

Dear Sir,

I am a Korean, age 37, possessing a fairly good knowledge of office routines, and can read, write and speak Chinese & Japanese.

Last Spring when Mr. Armstrong was in office, I applied to him for a position as a translator, and I passed examination in translation and typing, and proved to be satisfactory, I believe, but Mr. Armstrong asked for a paper from the local Japanese Consul, recognizing me as a registered Korean, so I was not fortunate enough to get the job. Later I heard from Mr. Wright of Thomsons that Mr. Armstrong was going away, I called on Mr. Siers again, who then told me to call again in a weeks time. By then I was offered a job by an American citizen, and I worked for him, till the November last.

At present I am engaged in a small manufacturing enterprise of my own, for which I have men to look after, and I am looking for a position, and I beg to apply to you for a situation in your office as a translator (Chinese & Japanese into English). The salary I require is Mf.150. Yes

Hoping this application shall meet with your favorable consideration.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours cordially,
K. S. Park

P.S. From March 1st.
My address will be at
781. Avenue Foch.

A.C. (Pol)
?
Yes